

Milwaukee Planned Parenthood Clinic Caught on Tape Circumventing Wisconsin's Sexual Abuse Reporting Law

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

An undercover video has just been released by Live Action showing staff at the Milwaukee Planned Parenthood abortion clinic counseling a young girl whom they think is a 14 year old statutory rape victim not to tell anyone about her 31-year-old boyfriend.

In the video, the girl tells the counselor her boyfriend is "much older." The counselor tells the girl whether or not the situation will be reported "depends on the person you're disclosing that information to." When the girl tells the counselor that her boyfriend is 31, the counselor tells her, "Just give them the information that's needed." The counselor confirms with the girl that the 31 year old boyfriend will be paying for the abortion.

"Not only did Planned Parenthood violate the law by not reporting the abuse, but the 'counselor' ignored the 14 year-old's fear that her boyfriend would be 'really upset' if she didn't take care of the problem," stated Barbara Lyons, Executive Director of Wisconsin Right to Life. "How many other minors has Planned Parenthood allowed to be the subject of continued sexual abuse by an older man?"

This video is one of a series of videos from Live Action documenting similar behavior at abortion clinics in other states.
